Open container ban may be lifted in certain Bay areas

BY AMY PICKICH

A number of residents aired objections at the Bay St. Louis City Council meeting Tuesday night about the open container law passed last week.

The residents said they have problems with it restricting them from recreational activities, such as having a beer while fishing, particularly at Cedar Point.

"Shouldn't we have a vote on it?" one resident asked.

Council president Jim Thriffley told the residents they were not a problem, but "with the way the community is growing, we need to get a handle on things."

Mayor Eddie Favre said they are looking into the wording of the ordinance to make an exception for the seawall and beach.

The open container ordinance, passed Dec. 7, prohibits possessing, consuming or transporting alcoholic beverages in open containers in public areas, including the beach. Council member Tom Farve cast the only dissenting vote.

The council said permits could be issued for organized activities, such as festivals and ball games.

The ordinance, which was recommended by Bay St. Louis Police Chief Frank McNeil to cut down on littering and the problems associated with crowds gathering and consuming alcohol, will become effective in 30 days.

Favre also recommended adoption of the ordinance to pre-

County recreation

Supporters of the Hancock County Riding Club and Bay Area Youth Soccer filled the Hancock County Courthouse Tuesday night to air concerns about recreational needs. During the public hearing, Hancock supervisors agreed to work with both groups in their application process for federal grants of up to $30,000 each. The grants are offered through a Land and Water Conservation Act program. David Taylor from Gulf Regional Planning discussed was on hand to assist with the grant application process, which must be completed by Friday. The Riding Club seeks funding for a horse show-arena and a track for training race horses. BAYS seeks funding for the Scott Dembo-ski Memorial Soccer-Plex. (Echo staff photo by Amy Pickich)

Water loss prompts new meters for port

BY MARY G. SEILEY

Hancock County's Port Bienville Industrial Park has been losing as much water as it's been selling to its tenants, officials said this week.

The county Port and Harbor Commission was told Monday that a recent study shows a 2.5 million to 3 million gallon water loss per month. The lost water is worth $1,200 to $1,800 per month, said commission engineer Carlos Cordon.

Cordon said the loss was discovered by comparing how much metered water is sold to park tenants monthly, versus how much is registered in a new flow meter at the park's main well.

He and commission president David N. McDonald attributed the loss to a lack of meters on water lines that have been installed over the years to the commission's system.

"Nobody is pointing a finger at any of these tenants," McDonald told the commission, adding that many current occupants of the park are in "previously owned" facilities.

Over the years, he said, previous tenants added water lines to auxiliary facilities which are not connected to meters. "Many have lines they don't even know about," McDonald said. New meters will help "plug that loophole."

The commission has agreed to have Cordon draw up a bid package for the new meters.

SEWER RATE HIKE

In other business, the commission agreed to hike its sewer rates to park tenants and to sell additional property to Gulf Coast Fabrication. It also shelved a bid for having the grass mowed on almost 200 acres of property.

In the past, sewer charges at the industrial park were half the amount charged for water. Under the new plan, monthly charges for sewer service will equal the charge for metered water service.

The change was one of several modifications

Bay-Waveland School Board

Crowded meeting ends in closed session

BY AMY PICKICH

Some 60 people attended the Bay-Waveland School Board meeting Tuesday, which ended in executive session to discuss student matters.

Linda Penrose was the only board member opposed to discussing the matter, for which the majority of the crowd was in attendance.

After the meeting Superintendent Paul Tisdale said no action was taken during executive session.

SCHOOL NURSE

The board authorized Tisdale to advertise for a registered nurse for the district. He said recent problems have arisen requiring a nurse, including numerous cases of head lice at North Bay Elementary.

"We do not have the time to stop education and check heads," Tisdale said. "...We need someone to check heads on a regular basis."

"It bothers me that it may get to the point that everyone is checking heads instead of educating."

Tisdale suggested housing a nurse at a central location, who would rotate among the schools and take call.

TESTING WORKSHOP

The board authorized Tisdale to enter contract negotiations with The Writing and Thinking Institute and to set aside two instructional days for teachers to receive information on testing procedures for the Mississippi Assessment System.

Tisdale said the state has made two days available this year only for students to miss school while teachers attend

Unsolved rapes, other crimes focus of St. Rose meeting

The unsolved rapes of three women in Bay St. Louis is the catalyst for a Saturday morning meeting at 10 at St. Rose de Lima Catholic Church.

According to a parish spokesperson, "We wish to reach those who have been victimized in our community by burglary, rape, intrusion or harassment."

"We want anyone interested to give input on what we, as women,

Supervisors refuse to abandon rights-of-way

BY MARY G. SEILEY

Hancock County's Board of Supervisors held fast Tuesday to ownership of its right-of-way along the landside edge of a proposed casino on South Beach Boulevard.

In separate action, the board expressed concern over the condition of the waterside edge of another stretch of the boulevard, and called for an engineering study of its degradation.

"We've got to fix it or close down the road," District 1 Supervisor Robert Peterson said.

In the first matter, supervisors refused to act on a blanket request that it abandon eight streets that run through the proposed Galaxy Casino development.

They did agree, however, to hold a Jan. 3 public hearing on possible abandonment of part of one of the streets. And they indicated they would agree ultimately to abandoning most of the rest of the streets as requested, while retaining ownership of Beach Boulevard right-of-way.

The streets at issue were dedicated to the county decades ago in Gulf View subdivision. Predominately marshland, they have never been constructed or used as streets. Six of the eight intersect with Beach Boulevard.

Two weeks ago, the board gave tentative okay for the developer to construct parking along the entire project frontage within the western right-of-way.

They also gave preliminary approval to abandoning all undeveloped rights-of-way within the property boundaries owned by Galaxy Casino, Inc. But the board made their actions contingent on approving detailed site development plans.

Tuesday, Gulf View subdivision property owner James Maness asked for abandonment of streets and avenues that show up on the subdivision's plat, but which have never been used as thoroughfares: Dunn, Ladner, Logan, Walker and Freeman avenues, and Austin, Cleveland and Shell streets.

He said he owns property adjoining Walker Avenue, and needs to have the county street abandoned in order to complete its sale. Maness said Galaxy developer Alvin Perry had asked him to seek the board's approval for abandoning all eight streets at the same time. Except for their varying high portions along Beach Boulevard, the routes are unuseable marshland, the supervisors agreed.

"Ten years ago, the county probably would have said, 'Take it,'" District 4 Supervisor Wilmer Seymour said Tuesday. "But that's valuable property."

The area at issue, near Buc-caneer State Park, is bounded

In Memoriam

In Loving Memory

of

LILLIAN G. GARCIA

December 15, 1992

Your gentle face and patient smile

With sadness we recall.

You had a kindly word for each

And died beloved by all.

The voice is mute and stilled the heart,

That loved us well and true.

Ah, bitter was the trial to part

From one so good as you.

You are not forgotten, loved one,

Nor will you ever be.

As long as life and memory last

We will remember thee.

We miss you now, our hearts are sore.

As time goes by we miss you more.

Your loving smile, your gentle face,

No one can fill your vacant place.

Sadly missed by

Husband, Daughters, Sons,

Grandchildren, Sisters,

Brothers and Friends

ST. ANN AND ST. JOHN NEWS

Thoughts for meditation—
 Time is: too slow for those who wait, too long for those who grieve, too short for those who rejoice, but for those who love—time is not.

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under heaven.

Ecclesiastes 3:1

Dear Father, help me be diligent in maintaining a meaningful inner life, remembering that time spent with You gives me life, remembering that time spent with You gives my life meaning and fruitfulness.
 Amen.

When light comes, the shadow can no longer exist.

In Him was life, and that life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, but the darkness has not understood it.

John 1:4

Lord, how can it be that in my search I so quickly pass You by?
 In this season of giving, help me remember that You are the gift already given for me if I am willing to receive You. Amen.

Congratulations to Lisa Oliver, Christie Amacker, Helen Norris, Raymond Norris and Patricia Nussbaum, who were received into the rite to the Catechuminate last Sunday.

As a special treat, following the delicious luncheon, director of religious education, Anna made to the commission's water and sewer ordinances.

The property transfer was agreed to after McDonald said Gulf Coast Fabrication is willing to pay $54,000 for three acres of land. McDonald said an appraisal would be completed before the sale to ensure that the price is at market value.

The commission bought a five-acre tract immediately west of its coal terminal about two years ago, and will retain two acres of the parcel that abut water, McDonald said. That will give the commission the ability to expand the number of barges at docks at the coal terminal.

McDonald said Gulf Coast Fabrication plans to build a new office and parking on the property it is buying. The company's current office building will be demolished and the site used as an additional manufacturing layout area, McDonald said.

Bids for grass cutting services were set aside on the recommendation of airport operations manager Dave Reuscher.

He said he has a "better solution" for Stennis International Airport than paying to have its 125 acres professionally mowed. He did not detail his alternative plan.

TCB Construction Co. of Gulfport had bid on cutting the grass at Stennis four times yearly, in addition to 40 acres at Port Bienville. Another 25 acres along the commission's railroad lines was to be cut twice yearly, all for a total of $15,820. McDonald said the bid was about $3,000 higher than TCB's price for doing the work in 1993.

The only other bid submitted totaled over $34,000 for the work. The commission tabled the bids, on Reuscher's recommendation.

SECURITY SYSTEM

In another airport matter, McDonald read the commission a letter from Federal Aviation Authority agent R.L. Edwards Jr., commending staff for improving the security system at Stennis. Edwards said, however, not all personnel who have been issued official identification badges for accessing all areas of the airport have been through the required security training.

Reuscher said that remark actually is aimed at the commission members themselves -- while they all have the special ID cards, they aren't eligible for them unless they've had special security instructions.

Reuscher offered to provide the necessary training to any commission member who wants it. Otherwise, he said, they'll have to be issued limited access badges.

"Just arrest any of them who show up," quipped McDonald.

Augustine: Time to move ahead with space program

BY ELLIS CUEVAS

Norman R. Augustine, chairman and chief executive officer of Martin Marietta Corporation, spoke to area community and civic leaders at a luncheon last week at the Diamondhead Country Club.

Augustine's theme, "Does America Still Have the Right Stuff?" expressed his view of our nation's ability and desire to assume the risks of an aggressive space program.

The CEO of Martin Marietta was introduced by David Treutel Jr., new president of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce.

Augustine said, "Today is, of course, a very special day for America's presence in space. The extraordinary activities of the last several days with the Shuttle repair mission on the Hubble Space Telescope are now winding down."

"And the performance of the Endeavor crew can only be described with the words Yogi Berra used to comment on the play of Yankee star Don Mattingly: 'He has exceeded expectations--and done even better.'"

"I am sure you share my own view that the flight crew, the ground crew and everyone else at NASA connected with the mission have exceeded expectations and done even better."

In commenting about his company, Augustine said, "For its part, Martin Marietta has long been involved in both NASA's manned and unmanned space programs. Our Titan rockets performed flawlessly over the course of 12 launches in the Gemini program in the mid-1960's and launched such spacecraft as Mariner, Voyager, and defense communications satellites in the 1970's and 1980's."

"Our Viking and Magellan satellites explored much of the Solar System and sent back a wealth of data--including spectacular photographs--that have changed the way we look at the Universe.

"We designed and developed the Manned Maneuvering Unit, which gave Astronauts the ability to move about independently in space, making Bruce McCandless the first 'human satellite' as he orbited the Earth at 17,000 miles per hour."

"Today, our most visible product is the Space Shuttle's huge orange External Tank, which we build just a few miles away in NASA's Michoud Assembly Facility in New Orleans. We just celebrated the 20th anniversary of the start of the External Tank program, during which time we designed, developed, tested, and built a total of 68 tanks. After 59 launches, the External Tank has yet to be the cause of a launch postponement."

"Who are the very talented engineers and technicians who have made the External Tank program a success? Many of them are your friends and neighbors. Of the 2,400 people we employ at Michoud, about 10 percent live here in Mississippi. Communities mean a lot to us. They live here, they pay taxes here, they volunteer in the community, they contribute to charities."

"No matter where we have facilities, we see ourselves as a partner dedicated to the future of the community. Martin Marietta is one of the largest United Way donors on the Mississippi Gulf Coast."

"The corporation also supports education through programs such as Junior Achievement and through higher education initiatives such as the Academies for Teachers of Math and Science."

"Today, Martin Marietta is the world's largest aerospace-electronics company. We have about 90,000 employees, including 25,000 scientists and engineers, working in 37 states and the District of Columbia, and we have offices in 17 countries.

"In light of the 90th anniversary of Kitty Hawk, the Wright Brothers did not pioneer manned flight by confining themselves to their bicycle shop in Ohio. One cannot, as has been sagely write, explore distant horizons while remaining in the harbor."

"More recently, we did not send Americans to the moon by sitting on the launch pad at Cape Kennedy. We did not win the war in the Persian Gulf by keeping our troops safely encamped at Fort Bragg."

"Yes, I believe America still has the 'Right Stuff.' The time is upon us to forge ahead with our great space legacy."

The Hancock County Chamber of Commerce assisted Martin Marietta in setting up the meeting with the business and community leaders from Hancock, Harrison and Pearl River counties, in addition to St. Tammany Parish.

Cindy Vernon, chamber executive director said, "The chamber's role is to provide a vehicle for prospective bidders on NASA contracts to meet with business and community leaders."

SITE PLAN REVIEW

After much discussion the council agreed to wait until Dec. 21 to vote on the Site Plan Review and Supplemental Standards and the recommendations of the planning and zoning commission.

The council previously attempted to pass the Site Plan Review, but it was not in ordinance form.

The commission recommended approval of Casino Magic's site plans and will allow a special exception for the parking lot previously tabled and the clubhouse.

Councilman Tad Black said he would like to adopt the Site Plan Review, which was not in order for Tuesday's meeting, before the recommendations of the commission.

Favre said the casino is bound by the pre-annexation agreement until the new Site Plan Review is adopted. Then the most stringent one takes precedent.

BIDS

A number of term bids were opened and turned over to Gordon Boh to review and make a recommendation to the board at the next meeting.

The low bid of $5,300 for a wheelchair lift from Adaptive Engineering Limited was approved.

The low bid of $24,910 from Covington Floor Company for a 3/8 inch thick gym floor at the Valena C. Jones gym was accepted.

The council approved a one-year extension on the city's drug task force. The city provides two personnel and some $65,000 to the force.

The council has planned a workshop for 6-7 p.m. before Tuesday's 7 p.m. meeting.

Abandon

by Sand Bay Culvert and Ladner Avenue. A 50- to 60-foot-wide strip along Beach Boulevard is owned by the county and is used, in part, for public parking.

Peterson, who represents the area, balked at abandoning county ownership of the highland areas of the streets. "I'd personally like to retain ... the ends of all these roads for county purposes," said Peterson. "I can't see giving away valuable property."

The board agreed to hold a public hearing on proposed abandonment of the wetlands portion of Walker Street, but to keep ownership of approximately 100 feet of highlands running off Beach Boulevard.

Galaxy developer Alvin Perry of Woodland Hills, Ca., wasn't at Tuesday's meeting. He said in a telephone interview afterwards, however, that the county only stands to gain good parking areas by abandoning its rights of way. "We're putting in parking for the public," said Perry.

The development plan includes improvements along the entire 1,850-foot complex frontage, he said, including public parking, and sidewalks. The streets are issue are "roads to nowhere. We'll get more parking from them by ... using every foot possible," he said.

Perry said there's "absolutely no advantage to the county not abandoning" the streets.

So far, Galaxy has acquired control over 70 to 75 acres, Perry said. Maness' property, under contract for sale, is in the middle of the development site, Perry said.

Of the assembled tract, only 7 or 8 acres are useable highland, he said. Officials with the state Bureau of Marine Resources and the federal Corps of Engineers will not allow use of any of the wetlands for parking area, he added.

Perry said he can't produce final plans for the board's review until he receives necessary permits from BMR and the Corps. Application for the permits are being filed this week, he said, after extensive conversations with those agencies "so the applications will reflect their wants and desires."

The developer expects the permit process to take three to four months.

In other business Tuesday, the board asked for a full report on the condition of the seawall along Beach Boulevard, between Coleman and Sears avenues, and near Ramoneda Street.

Peterson said the areas represent "a serious problem with the seawall and sidewalks collapsing." He said the Corps of Engineers is not scheduled to repair that portion of the seawall.

"You're talking about some kind of money," said District 2 Supervisor Alton Kellar.

The board said the county engineer should inspect the seawall and come up with cost estimates for its repair.

At Kellar's request, the board agreed to have speed deterrent devices put in the roadbed of Caesar-Necaise Road near its intersection with Highway 603. There have been a number of accidents at the site, Kellar said.

"QUOTABLE QUOTES"

By Ellis C. Cuevas

It seems there are some who have little respect for public property, as can be seen by the amount of malicious mischief happening at times.

For an example, the Bay St. Louis 'Shoe-Fly' constructed around the large live oak tree next to the old Bay St. Louis Hall was once again damaged this past weekend.

One asks the question, 'Who pays for all of the damages?' The answer is very brief, we all do.

One then asks, 'Who would do something such as this to damage community property?' It is very hard to imagine the type of person who would do such a thing.

Look at the many very important signs along our roads, such as stop signs, speed limits, etc., and how many of these have to be replaced because of vandalism.

It may seem to be fun for those doing such mischief, yet it costs taxpayer money to repair or replace road signs.

It sure would be good to have a few of those damaging Community property nabbed, and then have to pay the price for their vandalism.

To report any information on vandalism, you may want to call one of the hotlines. You need not give your name.

The hotline for Bay St. Louis Police is 255-6234 and the Hancock County Sheriff's Department is 255-6246.

I realize Christmas is not here yet, but I would pass this information on to you.

Once again you will be able to recycle your Christmas tree in Hancock County.

The Hancock County Chamber of Commerce's project will be underway from Monday, Jan. 3 to Friday, Jan. 8, 1994.

Those wishing to discard their tree for recycling can take it to the Human Services Complex on Longfellow Road and leave it there that week.

After dropping your Christmas tree off, if you desire, you may stop at the chamber's office on Highway 90 in Bay St. Louis and receive free saplings compliments of Mississippi Power Company.

Congratulations are in order to Robert Heitzmann upon being named the Federal Employee of the Year by the Mississippi Gulf Coast Association of Federal Employees.

He is a Naval Oceanographic Office employee at the John C. Stennis Space Center and is a resident of Bay St. Louis.

Heitzmann is very active in the community affairs in the Bay as well as at the Space Center.

I have known Robert for many years and I feel he is very deserving of the prestigious award.

Congratulations again, Robert.

EYES ON MISSISSIPPI

By Bill Minor

Downsizing of Legislature being pushed by Lt. Gov. Briggs

Anytime politicians want to peddle a new idea to the people, the magic formula is to tell them how much it is going to save taxpayers.

Hence, that's the pitch Lt. Gov. Eddie Briggs is using to generate citizen support for his ballot initiative proposition to cut the size of the Legislature virtually in half.

Reducing the Legislature from 174 members to 90 — 60 in the House and 30 in the Senate — as he proposes would save $2 million annually in legislative expenses, Briggs is saying in making his pitch around the state this week to collect 85,345 signatures on initiative petitions.

His drive on downsizing the Legislature is the first attempt to use the new ballot initiative process installed in the state Constitution last year by the voters, partially restoring the power of initiative and referendum which Mississippians had from 1916 to 1922.

However, instead of being able to directly propose both new statutes or constitutional amendments by petition as they could do formerly, now Mississippians can only initiate constitutional amendments.

Before going on the ballot, an initiative proposition is subject to review by the Legislature, which can either adopt it without change, or amend it, in which case both versions — the original one and the amended one — go on the ballot.

Of course, if the Legislature wanted to reduce the number of seats in the House and Senate, it could do it now by statute — a simple majority vote — without Briggs' proposed constitutional initiative. All the present constitution mandates is that the House shall not have "more than" 122 members and the Senate 52.

However, the conventional thinking, based on a failed experience in 1986 to pass a bill reducing the size of each branch by one-third is that on its own the Legislature won't do it.

As it was then, there's still a great deal of resentment by each branch against the other branch having any say-so on how many members it should have. That turf jealousy is already coming into play in the Briggs initiative plan.

House members generally look at it as a "Senate idea" or as "Eddie's re-election plan," since Briggs is the presiding officer of the Senate and most of the impetus is coming from the Senate side.

What will very likely happen, if the 90-member Legislature proposal gets enough signers to be put on the ballot, is that Legislature will come up with an amendment proposing different size for each branch, and the voters will have to pick which one they want.

There's some talk that House members may push through a competing plan that would leave the House at virtually its 122 members, and just cut the Senate from 52 down to 30 members.

For all the rhetoric that will be heard about the cost-saving virtues of reducing the Legislature to 90 members, the realities suggest that just won't happen.

Legislative expense as an item of cost in the annual state budget has risen faster percentage-wise than any expenditure in the past dozen years, from around $4.8 million to $15 million.

Considering that each senator and each representative in a 90-member legislature will have much larger constituencies to deal with, there is every reason to believe they will demand more secretarial and technical help and expense money than members now have.

The legislative base pay of $10,000 no doubt would be increased since lawmakers can do that by statute, not requiring a vote of the people, as a number of states require (and most of them have rejected increases in recent years.)

What has become a big item in the remuneration of Mississippi legislators is the per diem allowance, recently moved up to $82 per day, which lawmakers get not only when they are in session, but also for days between sessions that they hold committee meetings. And there have been endless committee meetings this interim period.

Lawmakers a few years ago set up a "supplemental" retirement benefit schedule for themselves which is at least 25 percent better than the regular state employees' benefits. That's another reason why so many legislators love to hold committee meetings between sessions — they pick up extra time on their supplemental retirement credits.

There are a number of ways the cost of legislative expense could be cut by $2 million, short of waiting for the Legislature to be reduced in size, which wouldn't happen at least for another three years.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Alcohol awareness could save a life

Dear Editor:

The holidays are special times and for some of us they are especially painful times. Glasses raised in merriment and cheer can shatter hopes and dreams. Drinking and driving don't mix.

Mothers Against Drunk Driving would like you to join us in our statewide Project Red Ribbon Campaign.

Please tie a red ribbon on a visible location of your vehicle as a simple reminder to pass the keys if you have been drinking and as a symbol of hope for a less violent holiday season. We want to change the meaning of "tie one on."

Two out of five Americans will be involved in an alcohol-related crash in their lifetime. Two out of five. The odds are frightening.

That's why drunk driving is everyone's problem. That's the bad news. The good news is that alcohol-related crashes can be prevented.

Public awareness is one way to do this and a thing as simple as tying a red ribbon on your vehicle could save a life — maybe yours or someone you love.

We want the holidays to always be times of great happiness for your readers.

Sincerely,
Dorothy W. Fuller

Open letter to people from Lt. Gov. Briggs

Special to the Echo
Should Mississippi have a smaller legislature? The answer is a simple, logical, unemotional yes. Unfortunately, many of our political pundits have tried to focus the debate surrounding this issue on the negative rather than positive factors. Let me answer a few of the negative remarks that seem so popular.

The U. S. Justice Department won't approve a small legislature. In Jackson we are accustomed to dealing with Justice objections and can appeal to the Federal District Court in Washington and to the United States Supreme Court.

Any objection the Justice Department might have must be based in law. There is no case or statute which requires a certain size for any legislature. Size is left solely to the state and its people.

The fundamental principal which must be embodied is protection of equal representation for all citizens, regardless of race. This will be easier to accomplish with fewer districts to draw.

Rural areas will lose representation. Mississippi legislators do not represent "areas." There is no geographic representation in our present system. Legislators represent people. I can think of no legislator who does not represent an incorporated area in his or her district. I can, on the other hand, point out several urban legislators whose districts are so geographically small that they do not represent any rural territory.

In my opinion, this problem would be alleviated when districts are enlarged to include urban and rural areas and broaden the overall interest of legislators.

Most problems caused by redistricting come as a result of incumbent legislators trying to preserve for themselves an electable district and not as a result of meeting racial quotas or building rural versus urban equity into the redistricting plan. Now let me tell you the benefits of a smaller legislature.

A smaller legislature would be more efficient and better represent the people of Mississippi. There are intelligent, hard working, and talented men and women who serve in both the House and the Senate. The system is so large, however, many members in both bodies cannot make a meaningful contribution.

When I became Lieutenant Governor, I asked the Senate to change its rules to allow each member of the Senate to serve on the Appropriations Committee or the Finance Committee. These are two of the most important committees in the legislative process. Just as in Washington, most legislative deals are cut at the subcommittee and committee level and votes on the floor rarely have an undetermined outcome.

As a freshman senator, I could not serve on either of these committees even though I represented over 50,000 Mississippians. Under our present legislative structure, Appropriations and Ways & Means in the House have 33 members each.

Fifty-six House members, who represent about 1,181,000 Mississippians, do not have a voice during the critical elementary stages of the process as to: Who will be taxed? How much? Where will the money be spent? No freshmen are currently serving on either of these important committees.

If the House were smaller, i.e., 60 members, every House member could, from the first day he or she was elected, sit on one of these critical committees.

We have more legislators per capita than any of our surrounding states, even more than Texas and California. By reducing Mississippi's legislature from 174 to 90, the taxpayers of Mississippi will save $2 million. In addition to the money it would save, our legislative process would become more efficient, it would allow more participation by individual legislators, thereby providing better representation.

To discuss the basic form of state government under which we all must live and work, I believe, is a fundamental right of all Mississippians. We have the responsibility and now the opportunity to adapt our state government to the form which we believe will best address the problems and the opportunities of Mississippi's future.

If you are not satisfied with Mississippi's legislative process and you feel we can be more efficient with a smaller legislative body, then join Initiatives for a Better Mississippi, P.O. Box 1856, Jackson, Mississippi 39215-1856 or call the Lieutenant Governor's Office at 359-3918.

We must have the signatures of 17,069 registered voters from each of our five congressional districts to put this matter on the ballot. We need your help.

This proposal is "too shallow" for The Clarion-Ledger and too deep for Sid Salter. That means it's probably just right for Mississippi.

the workshop. He suggested taking two days off during the week of March 14 or May 9.

Tisdale said the state superintendent has recommended the program, citing that if "we are going to change the way kids learn, then we must change the way they are tested."

Tisdale said it was a matter of having the staff prepared for the testing.

The board also authorized Tisdale to file the district's application for impact aid monies and to seek prices for a plaque for the field house honoring J. E. Loiacano;

The following donations were accepted: a popcorn machine from Burger King; playground equipment and labor to construct it from the Pioneers of America and Waveland P.T.O.; a button machine from the P.T.O.; and an IBM computer from Conduit of Honolulu, Hawaii were accepted by the district.

The board approved the ratifications of two contracts with Gulf Coast Physical Therapy for physical therapy and speech services for students. The board also approved the amendments for public law and pre-school.

Policies previously discussed on the dispensing of medicine and special education grading received board approval.

The new medicine policy specifies what types of medicines will be dispensed and requires parental consent notes on file if medicine is to be dispensed.

The changes in the new special education grading policy makes the grading system in compliance with state laws.

PAY INCREASES

The board approved a pay increase for substitute teachers, teacher assistants and aids, effective immediately.

Substitute teachers will be paid $40 a day for the first 10 days and $50 for each additional day. They had received $35 a day, $40 a day after five days and $50 a day after 20 days.

Assistant substitute teachers and substitute aids will be paid a flat rate of $30 a day to meet minimum wage requirements. Assistants were paid $20 a day and $25 a day if they work more than five days in a row.

PERSONNEL

The board approved the following personnel changes:

—the resignations of special education teacher Nancy Hode, Chapter 1 teacher Aleta Butler, regular bus drivers Debbie Anderson and Gill Ward, and substitute bus driver Bridget Vincent;

—the termination of Scotty Nelson.

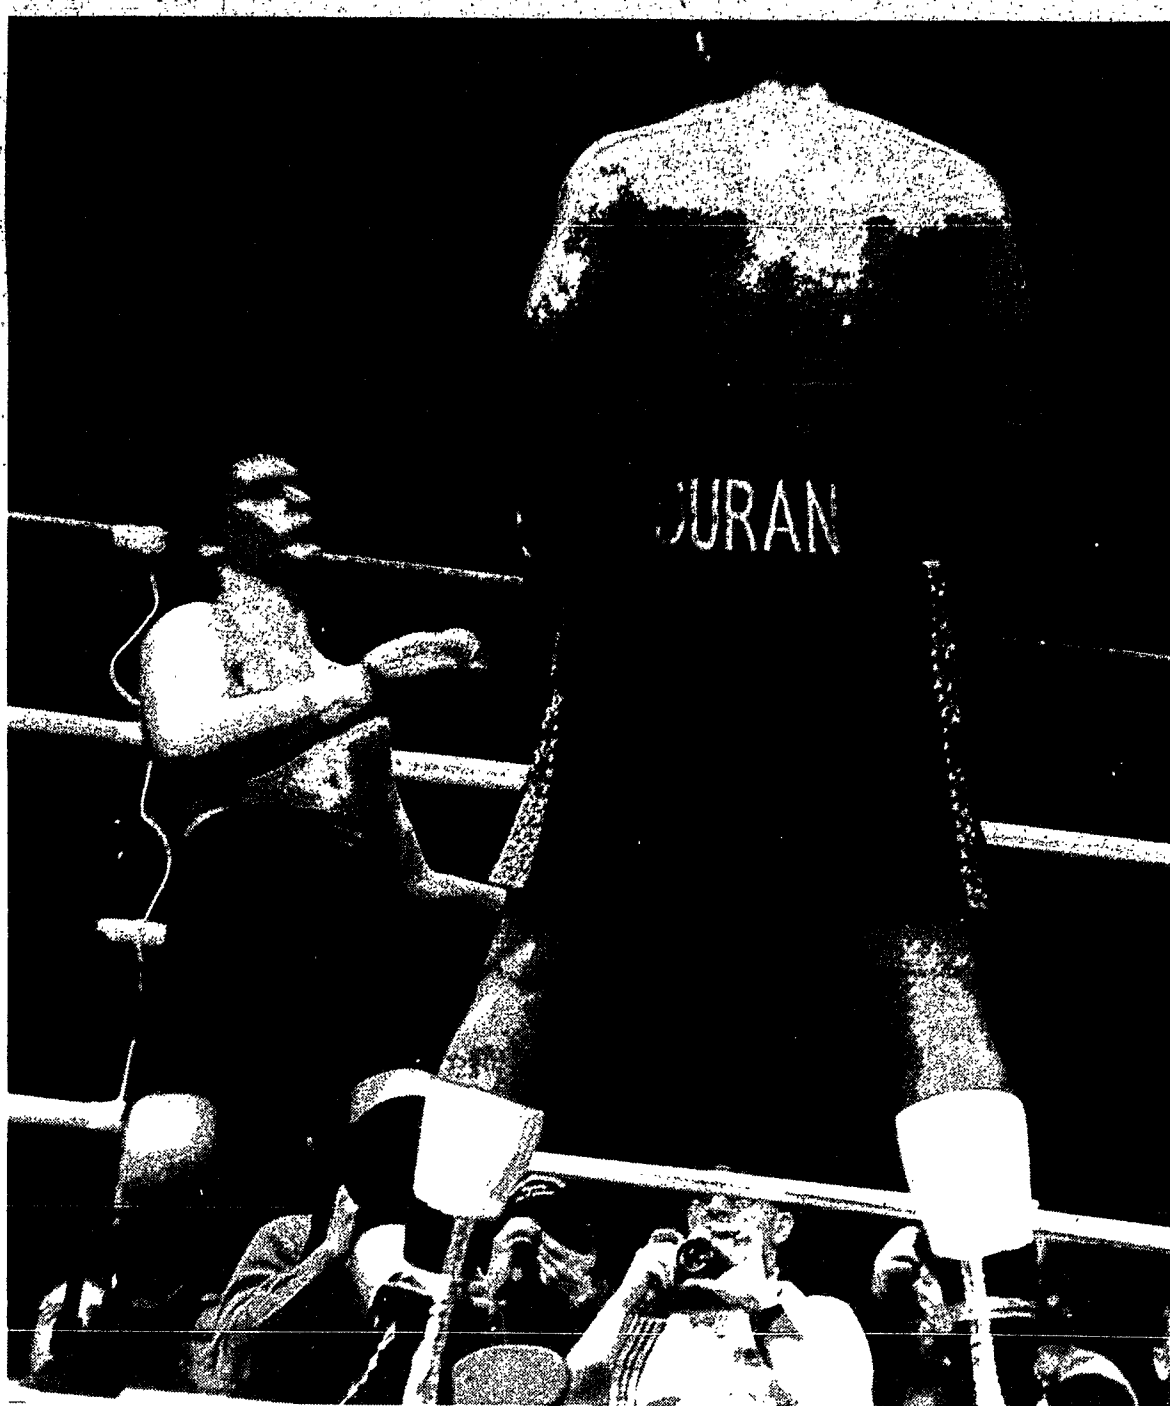

—the employment of Piccola Dietrich, who will assist with specific needs of children with traumatic brain injury. Tisdale said one TBI student will be attending school full time and one more will be attending soon.

—the employment of Debra Melaney as second grade teacher, contingent upon certification; Anita Spencer Lee as speech language pathologist; and Kim Stasney as early childhood coordinator.

—and the retirement and emergency status of Dennis Barcelona. He will be employed the rest of the school year, less one day.

In other matters, the board approved the minutes of the Nov. 8 meeting and the Nov. 8 claims docket with additions.

Purchases, bids, personnel changes approved by Hancock School Board

BY AMY PICKICH

At the December 6 meeting of the Hancock County School Board, the following items were approved:

—hardware maintenance, courseware license and staff development of take home computers, Chapter 1, to Jostens Learning Corporation for $6,590.

—the purchase of "Writing to Read" journals from IBM as a single source item for Hancock Elementary in the amount of $1,024 from EEF Textbook funds.

—the purchase of engineering technology software, nine unit series for IBM 5-1/4, from Midwest Technology Products for $681 from vocational funds, as a single source item for the diversified technology class.

—County Forester Mark Jamieson for the final inspection of the timber sale in Sections 19, 22 and 29, Township 5 South, Range 15 West, that the district should retain $560.06 of the performance bond and return the balance of $5,054.84 to Gulf Coast Timber, Inc.

—a request to adopt the textbook "Computer Confidence: A Challenge for Today," through the state textbook office for the new vocational course, Basic Personal Skills.

—the recommendation of contracts to provide speech therapy and physical therapy to identified special education students.

—to amend PL 94-142 and Pre-School budgets.

—emergency repair to a cooler that went out at Hancock North Central Elementary.

The board Denied a request from Georgia Pacific Corporation for a third extension on timber contract for Section 16-9-15. The board approved 16th section land cancellations and residential leases.

BIDS

The board accepted the low quotes of:

—$1,623.50, from Talley Student Services, Jostens, for high school diplomas;

—$1,037 from Newby Electric Company for the repair of a 75 hp Marathon Electric Motor at

Hancock High;

—$634.80 for Stinson Fence Company for the installation and repair of a fence at Charles B. Murphy Elementary;

—$1,954.80 from Guy Tire for 12 medium bus tires;

—$12,483 from William Mitchell Motors was approved.

A bidder's request to withdraw his bid on two school buses was held until more information is obtained.

PERSONNEL

The board approved the following personnel changes:

—the retirement of Anna Laura Miller as elementary teacher at Gulfview Elementary, effective Feb. 1, 1994;

—the employment of Peggy Wylie as special education homebound teacher and Robert N. Varvel as computer coach for the alternative education program;

—the resignation of Charles B. Murphy cafeteria worker Beth Randall;

—the employment of Mike Hailey as interim athletic director for the junior and senior high schools;

—Diane Kennedy and Donna Collins as special education teachers;

—Mary Alice Enders as elementary teacher at Hancock North Central;

—Paula Moran as full-time cafeteria worker at Gulfview Elementary;

—Pamela Barker, Kathy Hosty and Elaine Lee as cafeteria substitutes at Charles B. Murphy Elementary and;

—Lillian Dean as head nurse substitute.

The board approved the extended sick leave of Vicki Bonano and Sheryl Colson.

MISSISSIPPI COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT PROGRAM COMBINED NOTICE

NOTICE TO PUBLIC OF NO SIGNIFICANT IMPACT ON THE ENVIRONMENT AND NOTICE TO PUBLIC OF REQUEST FOR RELEASE OF FUNDS

December 16, 1993

Hancock County
c/o SMPDD
1020 32nd Avenue
Gulfport, MS 39501
(601) 868-2311

TO ALL INTERESTED AGENCIES, GROUPS AND PERSONS:

On or about January 4, 1994, the above named Hancock County will request the Department of Economic and Community Development, Division of Community Services, to release federal funds under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended, for the following project:

Construction of a new sewer collection system through the extension of sewer lines and the installation of grinder pumping stations to benefit low- to moderate-income persons.

FINDING OF NO SIGNIFICANT IMPACT

It has been determined that such request for release of funds will not constitute an action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment and accordingly, the above-named County has decided not to prepare an Environmental Impact Statement under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (PL 91-190).

The reasons for the decision not to prepare such a statement are as follows: no significant adverse effects are anticipated as a result of project implementation and services to be provided by this project are needed to improve the quality of life of low- and moderate-income residents in the project area.

An Environmental Review Record respecting the within project has been made by the Southern Mississippi Planning and Development District on behalf of the above-named County which documents the environmental review of the project and more fully sets forth the reasons why such Statement is not required. This Environmental Review Record is on file at SMPDD at the above address and is available for public examination and copying upon request between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., weekdays.

No further environmental review of such project is proposed to be conducted prior to the request for release of federal funds.

PUBLIC COMMENTS ON FINDING

All interested agencies, groups and persons disagreeing with this decision are invited to submit written comments for consideration by the Hancock County c/o the Southern Mississippi Planning and Development District. Such written comments should be received by SMPDD 1020 32nd Avenue, Gulfport, MS 39501 on or before January 3, 1994. All such comments so received will be considered and the City will not request the release of federal funds or take any administrative action on the within project prior to the date specified in the preceding sentence. Hancock County will undertake the project described above with Block Grant funds from the Mississippi Community Development Block Grant Program under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended. The Hancock County Board of Supervisors is certifying to the State that Hancock County and Michael Ladner, in his official capacity as President of the Board of Supervisors, consent to accept the jurisdiction of the federal courts if an action is brought to enforce responsibilities in relation to environmental reviews, decision-making and action; and that responsibilities have been satisfied. The legal effect of the certification is that upon its approval, Hancock County may use the Block Grant funds and the State will have satisfied its responsibilities under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, as amended.

OBJECTIONS TO STATE RELEASE OF FUNDS

The State will accept objection to its approval only if it is on one of the bases set forth in 24 CFR Part 58.75 and submitted in accordance with the required procedure set forth in 24 CFR Part 58.76. Objections must be prepared and submitted to Ms. Alice A. Lusk, Director, Department of Economic and Community Development, Community Services Division, 301 West Pearl Street, Jackson, MS 39203-3096 (Attention: Barbara Harvey).

Objections to the release of funds on bases other than those referenced above will not be considered by the State. No objections received after January 20, 1994 will be considered by the State.

College Football Highlights

When West Virginia coach Don Nehlen complained that if his Mountaineers didn't get the chance to play Nebraska for the national championship, it would be "the biggest crime ever perpetrated on a college football team," it seemed that he'd gotten a sneak peak at our mathematical rankings. Of the six teams we have ranked above the undefeated Mountaineers, the one they might come closest to beating is Nebraska. The way things stand, the Orange Bowl winner will be declared the national champion, and in the unlikely event that West Virginia tramples Florida in the Sugar Bowl, Nehlen and his troops will have every right to stake a claim of their own. We're sticking with Florida State, but without playoffs and with a coalition that isn't accomplishing much, there's no way to know for sure. Just think how ugly things might have become if undefeated Auburn were eligible for a bowl game.

The word "coalition" continues to accurately describe the teams that show up in post-season bowl games. Of the 36 teams that played in bowls last year, 20 of them are returning this year. For better or worse, a winning program in major-college football seems to be self-perpetuating.

Our forecasting average remained consistently high this season. Because of the ever-expanding Division I-AA, we picked a record total of 2,370 games, 40 of which ended in ties. We were right on 1,749 of the remaining 2,330, a percentage of .751.

Finally, here's our annual ranking of the top 20 college conferences, based on the average of our power quotients for the teams in each of 70 conferences. The Pac-10 fought its way to the top of the list last season, but this year the Southeastern Conference is back on top thanks to the strength of Tennessee, Florida, Auburn and Alabama. Here's the breakdown.

1 — Southeastern	94.3
2 — Pacific-10	94.0
3 — Big Ten	91.8
4 — Big Eight	91.2
5 — Atlantic Coast	90.7
6 — Big East	87.6
7 — Southwest	86.2
8 — Western	82.8
9 — Big Sky	70.9
10 — Big West	70.3
11 — Southland	68.7
12 — Mid-American	68.6
13 — Yankee	64.1
14 — Southern	63.1
15 — Gateway	61.9
16 — American West	59.8
17 — North Central	59.5
18 — Gulf South	56.1
19 — Mid-Eastern	55.7
20 — Lone Star	52.9

NFL Forecast for Saturday, Sunday and Monday Dec. 18-20

Dallas, 22—**N.Y. Jets, 14
(Saturday) This series stands at 4-1 in the Cowboys' favor, though the Jets won their most recent game three years ago — and Dallas has never played this good a Jets team. N.Y.'s weakness is pass defense.

Denver, 21—**Chicago, 20
The Bears have beaten the Broncos four out of the last five times they've played, including a 16-13 OT win in '90. This one looks close, because Denver will find it tough to pass against this D.

Atlanta, 17—**Washington, 13
(Sunday) In a battle of teams that have swapped attitudes since last year, Atlanta will end Washington's four-game winning streak. An omen: In last year's 24-17 loss, Neon Deion returned a kick 99 yards.

**Cleveland, 23—New England, 16
The Browns almost always beat the Patriots, but they seldom dominate: Last year they needed Mike Tomczak's TD pass with 31 seconds left to win 19-17. N.E.'s offense is allergic to end zones.

**Green Bay, 24—Minnesota, 21
When the Packers and Vikings met at the Metrodome, Minnesota won 15-13 on five Fead Reveiz field goals, the last one with four seconds left. The Pack won't lose its fourth in a row to the Vikes.

**Kansas City, 31—San Diego, 19
In the final minutes of their first game with the Chargers nine weeks ago, Joe Montana led the Chiefs 80 yards to the winning TD—the 27th comeback win of his career. At home they'll cruise.

**L.A. Raiders, 20—Tampa Bay, 14
These two teams haven't met since the Raiders were in Oakland and beat the Buccaneers in '76 and '81. Tampa Bay is weak in every category, but L.A. really isn't much better, winning with defense.

L.A. Rams, 10—**Cincinnati 9
The Bengals have won four of their six games against the Rams, including a wild 34-31 Q.T. game in '90. They're almost dead even, making Cincy the logical pick at home, but we see a mild upset.

**Miami, 29—Buffalo, 23
In late September Miami dominated the offensive and defensive lines and beat Buffalo 22-13 in a game that wasn't as close as the score. With playoff home fields at stake, Miami needs this one.

Philadelphia, 18—**Indianapolis, 13
The Eagles and Colts haven't played in three years. After battling Dallas and Buffalo and before trying to prepare for New Orleans and S.F., Philly will welcome the chance to beat up on someone.

Phoenix, 26—**Seattle, 17
Seattle is 0-3 against the Cardinals, whom they last lost to in '89. Phoenix can move the ball and score points, but it's lost a lot of close games. The Seahawks can't keep this one close.

**Pittsburgh, 27—Houston, 24
Three weeks ago Warren Moon threw for 295 yards and Houston's defense sacked Pittsburgh QB's six times as the Oilers shut down the Steelers 23-3. With Houston on a tear, Pittsburgh has to win.

San Francisco, 32—**Detroit 21
In two games in '91 and '92 the 49ers outscored the Lions 59-9. For what it's worth, both were played in S.F., and the last time the 49ers came to Detroit (in '85), they lost. Not this time.

N.Y. Giants, 28—**New Orleans, 24
(Monday) It's been five years since the Giants and Saints last met. N.Y.'s running game is among the best in the NFL, while N.O.'s defense is among the league's worst against the rush. Both need a win.

TIME OUT

RUNNING

In the Picayune Fall Classic, Mark Koch was the overall winner in the 10K race with a time of 35:04.

In the men's 45-49 division, Freddie Davis came in third with a time of 47:39.

In the 55 and over division, Dan Seliga came in second with a time of 49:15.

In the women's 10K 35-39 division, Nancy Davis came in second with a time 56:45.

The Pass to the Bay Christmas run is slated for Saturday, December 18.

The 10K race will begin at 9 a.m. and the 2-mile run will begin at 10 a.m.

The 10K race will start at the Hancock Bank in Pass Christian and finish at the Subway in Bay St. Louis. The 2-mile run will begin and finish at the Subway in Bay St. Louis.

Early registration is $10 for GCRC members and $12 for non-members. Late registration fee for all runners is $14. For more information call Mark Koch at 467-7786.

GOLF

The Pass Christian Isles Ladies Golf Association competed in a Texas Scramble Tuesday, Dec. 14.

First team winners included Pat Ellis, Ellie D'Antoni, Shirley Hyde and Marilyn Wild.

Second team winners were Mamie Calmes, Gloria Forstall, Helen Smith and Rosemary Chaplain.

Members enjoyed a Christmas party and honored three members with special awards. June Davies won the Women's Western award; Terry Scott won the Transnational and Elaine Reese was Most Improved Player.

ALUMNI SOCCER GAME

Soccer alumni from Bay High and St. Stanislaus will square off in a benefit game for the respective athletic departments and the Scott Demboski Memorial Soccerplex.

The December 29 game will be played at SSC stadium with kick-off at 7 p.m.

Players for the SSC Alumni team can call Art Rieben at 467-6267, Jerry Spell at 467-9057, Tim Burns at 467-9057, or Neil Favre at 467-1407.

Players for the BHS alumni team can call Kathy Edwards at 467-7951 or Joel Duncan at 466-9090.

HHS Hawks win Hancock Tourney

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II

The Hancock Hawks took two games from the visiting Pass Christian Pirates on December 10 as the boys and girls both won championships of the Hancock County Tournament.

In girls action, the Lady Hawks defeated the Lady Pirates by the score of 61-54.

The first half surge for the Lady Hawks made the difference. The Lady Hawks led at halftime by the score of 35-26.

Donna Carrell scored a game high 21 points and pulled down 12 boards for the Lady Hawks. She added 5 picked pockets for the Hawks.

Stacey Ladner added 16 points and 11 boards while Christy Arcement chipped in 14 points to round out the double figure scoring for the Lady Hawks.

Tomeka Brownlee scored 15 points for the Lady Pirates while Anita Brownlee and Mandy Theobald chipped in 15 points and 11 points, respectively.

Varsity Boys

In boys action, the Hawks defeated the Pirates by the score of 82-79.

The Hawks led at halftime 39-33.

Kelton Ladner was in a zone as he hit a game high 30 points for the Hawks. Ladner hit 8 three-pointers, with five of them coming in the final period. He also had five steals for the game.

Kendall Mitchell scored 22 points and Barrett Lohman scored 13 points and pulled down 13 boards for the Hawks.

Carlos Malley led the Pirates with 19 points followed by Willie James and Rhett Peters who each added 17 points.

With the wins, the Hawks pushed their record to 6-4 while the Lady Hawks improved to 9-2.

U-10 Grasshoppers win season opener

The A.G. Edwards Grasshoppers, a Bay Area Youth Soccer U-10 girls team, started the regular season Saturday defeating the Biloxi Belles 5-0.

The main offensive attack came from Blythe Turner, who scored three goals, and Mikki Kenny, who punched in two goals.

Katie DiBenedetto, Kacey Koenenn, Jessica Underwood and Julie Reboul had one assist each. One of Turner's goals was unassisted.

Outstanding defensive play by Katie Fillingame, Emily Scianna and Emily Meyers set the stage for continued pressure on Biloxi's defensive end of the field.

Ellen Ladner, Grasshopper goalkeeper, chalked up her first shutout with six saves.

The Grasshoppers (1-0) are the only U-10 girls team in the Bay Area Youth Soccer League. They will break for Christmas before continuing their nine-game schedule Jan. 8.

"One dollar, no holler"

Loiacano's Health Club in Bay St. Louis is raffling a three-month membership to the health club to benefit Bay Area Youth Soccer Scott Demboski Memorial Soccerplex. Raffle tickets are $1 each. Loiacano's has also set up jugs for donations at the health club as part of their "One Dollar, No Holler" campaign to raise money for the soccerplex. From left, soccerplex chairman Tom Demboski, treasurer Kristy Demboski, fund-raising co-chairman Gwen Meyers, BAYS soccer player Emily Meyers, J.E. Loiacano and soccerplex designer Curtis Colson. ### Junior Rocks win 1-0

The St. Stanislaus Junior High soccer team defeated St. John Saturday at the Rock-A-Chaw stadium. Jason Rieben scored the game's only goal on a penalty kick after being fouled in the goal box.

Edson Ocana, Alejandro Portales, Jonathan Gagnon, Kile Foster and Nick Middleton added the extra offensive pressure for the Rocks.

A stingy defense, led by Brandon Everett, Mark Gagnon, Roger Ridgeway, Cameron Schwartz and Chad Ourso nullified the attacking Eagles.

Keeper Justin Wadworth stopped any potential scoring opportunity.

Also assisting on the offensive side of the field were Kyle Kidd, Jimmy Saucier and Jeremy Edwards. Coaches attributed the win to excellent ball-handling, passing and teamwork.

IN AND AROUND DIAMONDHEAD

By Margaret Williamson

Holiday spirit shown in decorated homes

HOLIDAY LIGHTING

Treat yourselves to some beautiful Christmas lights and decorations as you drive around Diamondhead.

Some of our folks have been very busy getting their homes and lawns ready for Santa.

The Diamondhead Garden Club has selected the home of Hank and Virginia Langen, 8454 Kinio Court No. 1 overall winner in the contest.

Reg and Margie Morken, 7932 Hapuna Place, were awarded second place; and Herman and Delores Glacier, 7927 Hilo Way, third. Congratulations, and thanks to these folks for lighting the way.

CHRISTMAS DOLLS

Last Wednesday, Dec. 8, many dolls were on display and the ladies who dressed them had a tea party in the Hancock Bank Building in Gulfport.

This wonderful effort benefits The Salvation Army who distributes these beautiful dolls to little children who might not receive any other Christmas gifts.

Imagine the delight and joy at getting one of these "precious ones." Some of our ladies from the Diamondhead Community Church and others throughout the community dressed some 100 dolls for this annual event.

A first, second and third place was awarded to Shirley Blanchflower, Eileen Zeringue and Carolyn Simmons, respectively.

Carolyn (from our own Diamondhead Academy) Helen Hickman, M. E. Wright, Mary Mooney and Pat Harco, were given gift certificates for dressing five or more dolls. You did good, ladies, and for such a worthy cause!

DIAMONDHEAD NEWCOMERS

Those "wild and crazy gals" are joining Santa in a sing-along and luncheon Friday, Dec. 17, 11:30 a.m. at the Days Inn. Cost (for members only) is $7 to Evelyn Kibler at 6525 Koula Dr.

When these ladies get together, happiness happens. Come and be of good cheer.

DIAMONDHEAD BRIDGE

The Diamondhead Bridge Club will have its Christmas party Friday, Dec. 17, 9:30 a.m. at the country club.

Co-chairmen of the party are Joann Powell and Barbara Watkins. Other hostesses are Cassie Boutte, Irma Checksfield, Lee Fredian, Kay Gillam, Betty Pennington and Floye Thorp.

Surprises and entertainment providing holiday cheer. If you are unable to attend, please call Joann at 255-2548 or Barb at 255-9293 as soon as possible.

MORE BUSY LADIES

The Diamondhead Homemakers, who meet on the third Tuesday of every month at the Diamondhead Baptist Church, held their Christmas party Dec. 14.

These nice ladies have been sharing their many talents by providing the residents of the Dorchester West in Long Beach products of their hand works.

The latest gifts were napkin holders and ornaments for their Christmas tree. The new co-chairmen of this group are Gretchen Likes and Florence Gorman. Keep up the good works, ladies, and thank you!

HELP NEEDED

Sincere thanks is due to Bob Pflugfelder and his many volunteers for ringing those bells and tending the Salvation Army kettle at the Diamondhead Supermarket entrance.

Bob is reminding us that the Salvation Army headquarters in Gulfport is badly in need of people to assist in the packaging and distribution of toys and food on the days of Dec. 19 and 21.

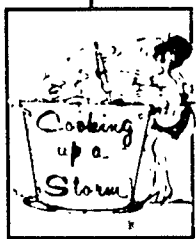

Please call Bob at 255-1243 to help. What better gift than to give of yourself at Christmas.

THOUGHT TO SHARE

"Be the living expression of God's kindness, in your face, your eyes, your smile, your greeting. Give not only your care but your heart."

—Mother Teresa of Calcutta

Love one another, and happy holidays!

COOKING UP A STORM

By Katy McGuire Caire

It's beginning to taste a lot like Christmas, all around my house, as I get down to "serious business" on the holiday cooking for family and for gifts from the heart and the hearth.

Pecans, that Southern favorite, take center stage, from deviled or sugared or spiced pecans to more elaborate items such as pecan pies or tarts or cookies of one sort or another. And, with the pecan crop so very good this year, I shan't have to skimp at all on my "goodies."

Pecans are a special treat, from eating just out of the shell to deviled roasted pecans, or sugared or spiced pecans, or in candies or breads or ice cream and so on.

Pecan pralines, that famed Southern-Creole confection, are extra-special gifts at Christmas time, or any other time of the year.

And, of course, that famous Southern dessert, Pecan Pie, is sure to please anyone who's lucky enough to receive it as a Christmas gift. One talented and energetic cook I know is making a couple of dozen for gifts this year. Hope that I'm on her list!

Although there are many variations, from basic Mom's kitchen versions to quite exotic ones, my favorite through the years has been my younger sister's Classic Pecan Pie.

I wonder how many pies have been made from her recipe ever since she won a super gas range in a Karo Corn Syrup Contest some years ago! Here's:

KARO CLASSIC PECAN PIE

(I just call it Lil Sister's Pecan Pie)

1 cup pecans, halved or chopped, as you wish
3 eggs
1/2 cup sugar
1 cup light or dark Karo corn syrup

1/8 tsp. salt
1 tsp. vanilla
1/4 cup melted butter or margarine
Pie crust, your own or commercial

Beat the eggs and add the sugar and syrup, then the salt and vanilla, and, last of all the melted butter or margarine. Place the pecans in the bottom of the unbaked pie crust, add the filling and bake at 350 degrees for 50 to 60 minutes, while the pecans rise to the top and form that marvelous crusted layer! And, for Heaven's sake, while you're making those pies for gift-giving, save one back for the holiday table, and perhaps even two!

FLOODPLAIN EXPLANATION NOTICE

PUBLIC EXPLANATION OF ACTION IN FLOODPLAIN

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors, Mississippi has decided to undertake the following project with CDBG funds from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development:

Construction of a new sewage collection system through the extension of sewer lines and installation of grinder pumping stations within the Shoreline Park Subdivision.

The proposed sewer collection improvements are located within a 100-year floodplain. There is no practicable alternative to this route.

Additional information, including a more detailed project description, and floodplain map is on file at the Southern Mississippi Planning and Development District and is available for public inspection, weekdays between the hours of 8:30 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

Comments on this decision will be accepted until 5:00 p.m., January 3, 1994 and should be addressed to the Hancock County Board of Supervisors, c/o Joe Strahan, Jr., SMPDD, 1020 32nd Avenue, Gulfport, MS 39501.

Hancock County
Board of Supervisors

Smiles galore

Hancock children talk it over with Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus at a Christmas party sponsored by the Diamondhead Women's Club last week at the community center. Santa distributed toys and clothing to more than 20 youngsters at the festive event. Diamondhead Women's Club founder and president Terri Downie stated the party was made possible through various club fund-raising events. (Echo staff photo by Jimmie Brewer)

AGAINST CHRISTIANITY

BY JOSEPH AND JESSICA GAMBINO

Why, after 2,000 years of Christian promises, do Christians still experience defeat? The unsuspected answer lies in the practices and beliefs of the religion itself. Read about it in a new, 386 page book now available in paperback. Send check or money order in the amount of $14.00 per copy to:

Parade of Lights

Santa sets sail Saturday in Diamondhead

BY JANET MCQUEEN

Thousands of twinkling lights reflecting on the water will signal the arrival of Santa Claus in Diamondhead's Christmas Parade of Lights Saturday beginning at 5:30 p.m. The unique tribute to the holiday season is the oldest parade of its kind on the Coast, said Commodore Don Marshall. Now in its 18th year, some 15-17 decorated boats are expected.

Santa and Mrs. Claus will disembark the last boat to greet children at the Diamondhead Marina and Yacht Club. Po-boys and salads will be sold at the yacht club beginning at 5 p.m. At 7, local favorites Bo and Dee will entertain.

"This parade goes beyond the scope of Diamondhead," said Marshall. "We expect some decorated shrimp boats from Pass Christian and Gulfport, and some boats from as far as Gulf Shores. Hancock Bank's 'Doris M' will enter this year, as well."

Parade-goers are advised to arrive by 4:30 p.m. to secure a good spot for viewing the parade.

Sunday, Dec. 19 is the rain date. If weather is questionable, call 255-7055.

Dinner demonstrates world hunger

John Ross serves a plain rice dinner to Third World diners.

Special to the Echo
Phil Longmeyer, junior religion teacher at St. Stanislaus, organized a dinner depicting the distribution of wealth in the world and how the distribution affects food availability.

Fifty people randomly chose to be in the First World, the Second World or the Third World. The dinner for the seven members of the First World, Caesar salad and rib eye steak, was served to the guests on china with crystal glasses.

The dinner for the six Second World guests, chicken broth soup with onions and bread, was served at a table with a bench.

The dinner for the thirty-seven Third World, rice only, was served to them as they squatted on the floor.

Armand's Restaurant donated tablecloths and napkins; Adams' Lorraine Flower

Jones, Ryan attend conference

Julie Ryan and Amy Jones, juniors at Our Lady Academy, attended The National Young Leaders Conference in Washington, D.C.

Julie is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Michael Ryan, and Amy is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hal Jones, all of Pass Christian.

The National Young Leaders Conference is a development program for outstanding high school students who have demonstrated leadership potential and scholastic merit. The two were among 350 students from across America.

Throughout the six-day conference, they had the opportunity to interact with key leaders and newsmakers from the three branches of government, the media and the diplomatic corps. To complement the special meetings, they also participated in a number of leadership skill-building activities.

Julie Ryan

Ryan is an alpha honor roll student, treasurer of the junior class, member of the editorial board and typist for the Literary Magazine and participates in cross-country.

She is also a member of Campus Ministry, JETS (Junior Engineering Technological Society), Math/Science Team, Demo Science Squad, Crescent Athletic Club and Quiz Bowl.

She is president of St. Paul Catholic Youth Organization, lector at St. Paul Church and a volunteer at both the Waveland Literacy Program and St. Paul Vacation Bible School.

Also an alpha honor roll student, Jones is a St. Stanislaus varsity football cheerleader and a member of OLA's varsity track team, Crescent Athletic Club, JETS, SADD (Students Against Driving Drunk) and the yearbook staff.

She was a volunteer at the Marine Education Center last summer.

Davison named to Who's Who

Gary Wayne Davison of Whiteman AFB is among the 68 students from Northwestern State University of Louisiana who have been selected as national outstanding leaders and whose names will appear in the 1994 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

Campus nominating committees and editors of the annual directory have included the names of these students based on their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and potential for continued success.

Co-op classes hear speakers

Co-op students at Bay High School recently heard advice from two professionals in real estate and law enforcement.

Nell Frisbie, managing broker of Latter and Blum, discussed careers in real estate, real estate investment and budgeting housing expenses.

Rick Tate of the U.S. Customs Blue Lightning Command Center of Gulfport spoke of careers in the federal law enforcement field.

Courrage attends MUW seminar

Anne Marie Courrage of Bay St. Louis was one of 50 young women statewide chosen to participate in the "Dynamic Discoveries" seminar at Mississippi University for Women.

"Dynamic Discoveries," a leadership seminar developed by MUW for high school students, is designed to enhance and teach leadership skills, explore the process of decision-making and improve levels of self-confidence and self-esteem in young women.

This year's keynote speaker was Constance Slaughter-Harvey, Assistant Secretary of State for Elections and General Counsel of the State of Mississippi.

Horses, wagons on parade in annual Christmas event

The fourth annual Country Christmas Horse and Horse/Wagon parade in the Dubuison community will be sponsored by the St. Ann CYO.

Activities begin Friday, Dec. 17 at 6 p.m. at the West Harrison Ball Park north of Pass Christian off Vidalia Road. Miniature horse and buggy rides will be available for children. Music will be provided by the St. James youth choir, St. Matthew adult choir and Tim Farnsworth, Pass Christian High School band director.

CYO members have decorated 25 Christmas trees, each representing a country and its customs. There will also be a live nativity scene.

Santa will arrive at 9:15 for a tree lighting.

On Saturday, horses and wagons and their riders will be registered beginning at 7 a.m. The parade will begin at 10 a.m. at the ball park. It will stop at St. William Church from noon until 12:30 and return to the park. Santa will visit with children at both sites.

Refreshments, raffles and crafts are planned both days. For information call 255-1189, 255-6055, 255-5236 or 255-3273.

Double your fun. This black beauty takes two with real class. The adjustable seat is a special feature that accommodates two people. The flexible hand-hold is convenient for passengers of many sizes and the padded nerf bars give the riders a feeling of being part of the machine. That seat has real automotive styling with its high back comfort and pleated cover over a dense foam cushion. There's a lot of special engineering from the passenger's foot guard to drop frame and wide track design. The parking brake is unique, too. It sets easily.

You start the engine, get in and a simple foot tap releases the brake, and your off. A great safety idea from Manco.

CONSUMER UPDATE

Last minute cost-cutters to ease the after-Christmas burden

By Janet K. Lukens, MBA, CFP

Consumer Management Specialist
The last moments of Christmas shopping are here. All too often panic and fatigue push the 11th hour shopper to purchase the first item they see.

But even late shoppers can control dollars as we resolve to do better next year. The following ideas may spark a little last-minute creativity and keep debt lower in 1994.

If the bills have already mounted beyond control, consider freezing the credit cards, surround them in a block of ice. You can still use the cards, but only after a few hours of thawing. Impulse purchases are impossible with this technique.

A frequent last-minute gift idea is a basket filled with flavored coffee, food mixtures or other favorite items of the recipient. These baskets easily run $15 to $50 but can be made with little skill or time for a fraction of the ready-made cost.

A simple, inexpensive but useful gift for those with a fireplace is a bundle of kindling. Tie it together with a large, colorful bow.

making this gift requires a source for the dry wood and a small amount of preparation time. Turn it into a family outing and teach children holiday creativity.

Giving of your time can be better than giving things. Homemade goodies are rarer than ever for the two-income family. They also make a fun activity for kids of all ages.

My four-year-old delights in stirring, pouring and "helping Mommy". And I always receive lots of compliments on homemade candies from busy friends who seldom cook themselves.

Babysitting for the friend or neighbor who has not finished his/her shopping can be a most appreciated gift. If you are especially brave, get all the little fingers involved in the cookie and candy preparation.

For the computer buff, try "Shareware" instead of copyrighted programs from the major retailers. One inexpensive source of shareware is Reasonable Solutions, 1221 Disk Drive, Medford, OR 97501 or (800) 876-3475.

Simpler is sometimes better. Ask yourself, are there items on my list which are unnecessary? Scrutinize the list before rushing blindly to the mall.

If it is too late to stay out of debt this year, at least make the credit payments as painless as possible. Check interest rates on credit cards and other Christmas credit.

If they are higher than 12% to 15%, consider transferring balances to lower interest rates. Low interest rate credit card listings are available through Bankcard Holders of America, 560 Herndon Parkway, Suite 120, Herndon, VA 22070.

Some retail stores and finance companies are teaming up to offer holiday financing with interest rates as low as 10%. Just be careful to watch for extra fees, credit insurance, and extended warranties before you sign the bottom line.

It is so easy to let budgeting and money management become secondary when the Christmas shopping "crunch" hits. Creativity on a deadline is not easy. But it is far preferable to throwing money at the problem then paying for months to come.

DOWN HOME

By Darlene Underwood
Hancock County
Home Economist

When talking about children's toys, I always think of this educational truism: I hear and I forget. I see and I remember. I do and I understand.

Toys encourage a child to do. Play truly is the work of a child, and toys are the tools of that work.

Through play, children learn to master and understand themselves and their world. Play aids in the physical, social, intellectual and emotional development of the child. It is important that both parents and grandparents be informed about the criteria for selection toys.

A toy that is right for a child should have these characteristics:

Age and interest appropriate; appeals to the senses.

Safe, durable, promotes play, encourages learning and growth and fits your budget.

Toys should be age appropriate, and since a child's abilities change so fast, that isn't easy. Toy manufacturers help by labeling many of their toys with the suggested age range. Check this label and select toys indicated for the general age range of the child. A child loses interest immediately in a toy that is not age appropriate.

Toys may be selected to fit the interest of the child. A child who loves cars and trucks will enjoy having a collection added to or completed.

A new ball, racquet, or other equipment for a favorite sport will always be welcome. If the child has no special interest, choose toys of wide popular appeal or one that might spark a special interest. Board games, bubble blowing equipment, or manipulative toys will be enjoyed by most children.

Children learn through their senses. They are responsive to colors, textures and sounds. Toys do not have to be artistic but they should have simple functional lines, good finishes and bright clear colors.

They should also feel good to the touch. A toy should be age safe, construction safe and material safe. Whether or not a toy is safe may depend on the age of the child.

A toy may be hazardous for a small child that would be quite suitable for an older one. Toys with small, loose parts, for example, are not suitable for children under three.

A toy that wears out or breaks while the child is still interested in it is a great disappointment. Elaborate, mechanical toys are a particular problem since they have so many parts that might break. Look for sturdy materials and good construction.

"Play is in the child and not in the toy." Too many toys are used for a day or two and then abandoned. They do nothing cleverly, but they do not creatively involve the child.

Take a closer look at simple toys that allow a child to do something himself — toys that are not so complex that they stifle the imagination.

These are likely to be the ones that encourage creativity or allow the child helpfully to express his innermost feelings through play.

Children's playthings don't have to be toys. There are other kinds of tools for growth and development.

Look beyond the toy section. Rummage through a hardware store for gifts such as tools, flashlight, tape measure, bird feeder.

Art stores are rich in finger paints for preschoolers, construction paper, paints, pencils, mosaics, craft supplies and jewelry making.

Search a stationery shop for maps, globes, diaries, book plates with the young reader's name, personalized writing paper or name and address stickers. Children also love staplers, desk accessories, autograph books and scrap books.

Small size cooking utensils combined with small packaged mixes from the grocery store make a wonderful gift for beginning bakers. Try a variety of cookie cutters with an offer to teach the child to bake. If you have several children, a bake-off might be fun.

REQUEST FOR BIDS

USED REFRIGERATORS

The Waveland Housing Authority is now accepting bids for the purchase and removal of 50 used refrigerators.

Bids will be received by the Waveland Housing Authority, P.O. Box 90, 600 Canfield Circle, Waveland, Miss., 39576, until Tuesday, December 21, 1993 at 11:00 A.M. At this time and place all bids will be opened and publicly read aloud.

Bid specifications are available upon request at the office of the Waveland Housing Authority or by calling (801) 467-4247.

The successful bidder must submit a bid for the total of 50 refrigerators.

The refrigerators will be released by the Housing Authority over a period of 5 months in increments of 8 to 10 per month.

The successful bidder must remove the monthly allocation of refrigerators within five working days of notification by the Housing Authority.

The refrigerators will be removed from occupied apartments by Housing Authority personnel to a central storage site for removal by the successful bidder.

Payment for the refrigerators must be made in the form of a money order, cash, or certified cashiers check. Payment must be made to the Housing Authority at the time of removal each month.

The Waveland Housing Authority reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to waive any informalities in the bidding.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed bids will be received by the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi until 10:00 A.M., January 13, 1994, and shortly thereafter publicly opened for:

RENOVATION AND MODIFICATION OF BOAT LAUNCHING FACILITIES AT BAYOU TALLA, PEARL LINGTON AND CEDAR POINT.

The award, if made, will be made to the lowest qualified bidder on the basis of the total of the bid prices for the three sites. However, budgeting constraints may allow for the renovation of only one or two of the sites.

Plans and Specifications are on file in the office of the Hancock County Chancery Clerk and Lawrence L. Seal, County Engineer, 119 Tally Road, Pleasure, Mississippi.

Certified check or bid bond for five percent (5%) of total bid payable to Hancock County must accompany each proposal.

The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids. Certified check or bid bond will be returned immediately to unsuccessful bidders. Bidders are hereby notified that any proposal accompanied by letters qualifying in any manner the condition under which the proposal is tendered will be considered an irregular bid and such proposals will not be considered in making the award.

A performance bond, or equal, in the full amount of the contract will be required of the successful bidder. In lieu of a performance bond the successful bidder may post with the Board of Supervisors, the full amount of the bid, in cash or its equivalent, conditioned for the prompt, proper and efficient performance of the contract; said cash or its equivalent to be held until the successful completion of the project.

Contractors shall be licensed under applicable laws of the State of Mississippi and have a certificate of responsibility.

Published by Order of the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County, Mississippi, this the 8th day of December, 1993.
